POSITION OVERVIEW

Erin Mills Soccer Club is currently seeking volunteers for the following roles: Recreational Micro Coach and Recreational Assistant Micro Coach. We offer three different seasons: Fall Indoor season (September-December), Winter Indoor season (January-April) and Summer Outdoor season (May-August).

The Recreational Micro Coach is responsible for leading the group's activity during session. In this position, you will be following a coaching booklet provided by the club at the start of the season. The curriculum contains 10-weeks of activity content followed by a 3v3 game at the end of the session.

The Recreational Assistant Micro Coach is responsible for helping the Recreational Micro Coach manage the kids in the field of play. They will be demonstrating the activity to the players/parents while helping support the activity at hand. The Recreational Assistant Micro Coach will ensure all players have a soccer ball and are engaged in the activity at all times.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES & DUTIES

- Review coaching booklet and curriculum before sessions
- Wear EMSC gear provided at the beginning of the season to all games
- Arrive ahead of the scheduled sessions
- Assist with field setup and take down
- Be committed to coaching weekly sessions
- Ensure players are wearing their EMSC provided uniforms along with proper footwear (and shinpads for U5-U6)
- Facilitate substitutions or position changes for team, ensuring equal playing time for all participants
- Provide ongoing support and feedback to players in a positive manner
- Educate participants on soccer basics such as kicking a ball, playing positions, etc.
- Adhere to the Laws of the Game specified by EMSC
- Show respect to all involved including fellow coaches, spectators and EMSC staff
- Inform EMSC staff of any injuries and fill out the appropriate injury form

SKILLS/QUALIFICATIONS
